Questo libro racconta, seriamente e in modo allegro e spiritoso, le differenze tra Italia e Stati Uniti viste dall'autrice, un'americana nata a New York e vissuta tra l'America e l'Europa. Mariaceleste de Martino mette a confronto Italia e Usa secondo le sue esperienze, ma soprattutto intervistando celebrità, che hanno un legame tra i due Paesi in ogni campo professionale, dal cinema alla danza, dall'imprenditoria alla moda, dalla scienza all'arte, dallo sport alla politica, dalla religione al cibo. Il libro contiene anche un "cameo" di Nastassja Kinski, che da donna, mamma e star del cinema ha vissuto a Roma e ora vive in California. E inoltre, un'analisi intelligente e concreta, forse la soluzione all'economia italiana, nella prefazione di Gianmarco Tognazzi. Nonché, la postfazione di Simone Crolla, managing director della Camera di commercio americana in Italia, e un commento di Lucio D'Ubaldo, presidente della Fondazione Italia Usa.
